Coming October 1: “Voices from the Pews”

The first of its kind devotional book written by members and friends of the First Church of Seventh-day Adventists - Washington, DC

Journey with nearly 200 authors who share their experiences in 365 devotionals that discuss:

- How angels provided unforeseen protection in time of crisis
- How the Holy Spirit led a young man to keep asking questions of a co-worker until he found “the truth”
- How physical needs were mysteriously met when parishioners chose to put God first
- How appreciating God’s love led a victim of abuse to find peace and forgiveness
- What it means to experience the joy of contentment and peace through prayer
- And numerous miracles wrought in individual lives demonstrating the ever-present love of God

Voices from the Pews is one of those devotional collections you will want to read and share with your congregation and friends. To pre-order your copy, complete the attached form. For more information, you may contact the First Church of Seventh-day Adventists at secretary@firstsdachurch.org or at 240-965-6263.

All proceeds for the $20 purchase of this book go toward the support of Christian Education.
